

Paired differences across all 50 paths

Each observation is a whole path, averaged over the same bank of 400 seeds.
This is descriptive between-path variation; a negative value favors our method.